Ellucian PowerCampus™ Financial Aid

A complete financial aid processing system

As tuition costs continue to soar, outpacing inflation and student aid, financial aid has become increasingly vital to students and institutions alike. Now more than ever, institutions need to be able to administer aid efficiently, accurately, and equitably.

A unified solution for financial aid management

To streamline the complex management of financial aid, and to help ensure compliance with federal requirements, Ellucian offers PowerCampus Financial Aid—a comprehensive, customizable system that automates your financial aid process.

PowerCampus Financial Aid offers a robust set of tools to help staff and students navigate the time intensive processes of aid application and management.

Utilizing College Board PowerFAIDS®, PowerCampus Financial Aid helps you:

- Track financial aid applications

- Assist with early FAFSA submissions and use of prior-prior year (PPY) income information

- Create, update, and maintain student records

- Generate and record emails and letters relating to financial aid

- Calculate student budgets automatically

- Conduct student aid need analysis

- Package aid awards (both individually and in batches)

- Process, manage, and disburse funds

- Load, process, adjust, and receive federal data

- Create customized aid reports

Deliver secure, convenient student access and self-service options

For institutions that wish to offer greater selfservice options to their students, PowerFAIDS® Net Partner provides a secure, customizable, user-friendly portal. This economical and easyto- implement companion solution lets students update their profiles, accept and decline awards, and view their application status, awards, messages, and financial aid information.

Better for students, better for staff

PowerCampus Financial Aid offers a robust set of tools to help staff and students navigate the time-intensive processes of aid application and management. Online assistance, student self-service, and task automation mean fewer help requests—which means more time and resources to provide the crucial guidance and higher service levels that students need.
