

Ellucian values your time and expertise and will discount the registration fee for lead presenters/panel organizers. Lead presenters will receive a complimentary registration and have access to a special room block within the Ellucian Live hotel block.

Ellucian Live 2022 lead presenter discount policy

Process for lead presenters/panel organizers

All customer lead presenters listed on a proposal submission have a special registration set aside for them and must wait until after the proposal status notifications are sent before registering and reserving a hotel for Ellucian Live. A two-week (event/hotel) registration window will be open after the proposal notification, guaranteeing the lowest price regardless of whether the session is accepted. Customer co-presenters may register at any time.

Upon notification of the status of your presentation:

For declined sessions

Customers listed as lead presenters on submissions that are not accepted will be guaranteed the early bird registration discount for two weeks after the notification is sent. Also, a separate lodging block has been established and is available during this two-week period so that you will be able to secure accommodations within the room block. If you do not register for Ellucian Live 2022 within this two-week period, then you will need to register at current published rates at the time you register. Due to high demand, your lodging reservations must be completed within this two-week period to be guaranteed.

For accepted sessions

Customers listed as lead presenters on accepted submissions will have a two-week period after proposal notification to book hotel rooms. Ellucian will hold a protected block of hotel rooms for lead presenters listed on accepted proposal submissions as the last step of your registration process.

Eligibility

To be eligible for this discount program, you must be listed as a lead presenter on a proposal submitted through the Call for Proposal process, as well as complete your registration and book your hotel within two weeks from when lead presenter registration opens. Please use the same email address used in your Call for Proposal application when registering for Ellucian Live 2022. If you do not register for Ellucian Live 2022 within this two-week period, then you will need to register at current published rates at the time you register. Due to high demand, your lodging reservations must be completed within this two-week period to be guaranteed.

If you are a customer listed as a co-presenter on a proposal submission, you are not eligible for this lead presenter discount. Please register and book your hotel as soon as possible to guarantee the best pricing.
