

Remember, some presenters get a discount

Ellucian Live 2019 and Ellucian Degree Works™ Forum presenter discount policy

Ellucian values your time and expertise, and will discount the registration fee for lead presenters/panel organizers who spend time preparing presentation materials.

ELLUCIAN LIVE 2019

PRESENTER DISCOUNTS:

- A customer who is the lead presenter/panel organizer for one qualifying session will receive $500 off the full conference package registration fee
- A customer who is the lead presenter/panel organizer for two or more qualifying sessions will receive a full registration fee waiver
- The lead presenter/panel organizer registration fee discount is applied only to customer-led sessions and may not be transferred to non-presenters

If your sessions are accepted at both Ellucian Live 2019 and the Ellucian Degree Works Forum 2019, you are eligible for the applicable speaker discount for both conferences. Since you will attend both conferences, be sure to register for a combination package, which confers an additional discount over purchasing the two conferences separately. No additional discounts may be applied.

Remember, if you are attending but not presenting, only one non-speaker discount is allowed for

ELLUCIAN DEGREE WORKS FORUM 2019

PRESENTER DISCOUNTS:

- A customer who is the lead presenter/panel organizer for one qualifying session will receive $150 off the full Ellucian Degree Works Forum conference package registration fee
- A customer who is the lead presenter/panel organizer for two or more qualifying sessions will receive $250 off the full Ellucian Degree Works Forum registration fee
- The lead presenter/panel organizer registration fee discount is applied only to customer-led sessions and may not be transferred to non-presenters each registration. Because of the discount built into combination packages, no other non-speaker discount codes may be applied.

Discounts are not applicable for co-presenters/panelists and birds of a feather discussions, roundtable sessions, or user group meeting sessions.

All presenters, panelists, and facilitators must register online before the conference.
